

Privacy Statement LeanSight BV

Introduction

Your right to privacy is important. As LeanSight BV we believe that personal information you choose to furnish online should only be used to help us provide you with the highest quality of products, services and support. We display this Privacy Statement to make you aware of the information practices for the LeanSight website and to explain how we collect, use, disclose and store your personal data. We encourage you to inform yourself and read further about our privacy practices. To make this notice easy to find, we make it available on our website at every point where personally identifiable information may be requested.

Definition and use of collected data

"Aggregate Information" is information that describes the habits and other behavioral traits of the users of the Site as a group but does not indicate the identity of a particular user. Generally, this information is collected through "traffic data" and may entail the use of "Cookies", "IP addresses" or other numeric codes used to identify a computer. We use non-identifying and aggregate information to improve your experience on our website.

"Personally Identifiable Information" refers to information you voluntarily provide to LeanSight that tells us specifically who you are, such as your name, date of birth, e-mail address, company name, address, telephone number and billing information such as creditcard number and expiration date. This information will not be used for any other purpose than strictly necessary for the features and functions in LeanSight, such as communications between participants, notifications to participants, payment of purchases and information about performance of participants, projects and users. This information will not be shared or sold to any third party.

Cookies

Cookies are small pieces of information stored through your browser on your computer's hard drive. The LeanSight website uses cookies, to better serve you when you return to the site. If you prefer not to receive cookies you have the option of setting your browser to warn you before accepting cookies or to reject them altogether. If you do so, however, some areas of some sites may not function properly.

Security

Information collected by LeanSight is stored in secure operating environments that are not available to the public. All of our employees are dedicated to maintaining and upholding your privacy and security and are aware of our privacy and security policies. We continuously use the highest standards in the industry to protect your privacy. We guarantee that your Personally Identifiable Information or private communications will remain private under all normal circumstances. You are responsible for taking all reasonable steps to ensure that no unauthorized person shall have access to your LeanSight password, if you are assigned a password to access a product or restricted area of the Site.

How you can access or correct your Information

You can access and correct your personal identifiable information by following this procedure: Login to your LeanSight account and click the profile button (right top corner of your screen). You can access and correct project information on the project page.

Updates of the Privacy Statement

LeanSight B.V. may update this Privacy Statement from time to time to stay current with changes in our business and to better serve you. We encourage you to visit this page frequently to inform yourself of any changes.
